

Tylor Ray Cole Hollifield

June 8, 2025 - December 8, 2025

Tylor Hollifield, age 25, of Grand Prairie Texas, passed away leaving a spirit that brought joy to everyone who knew him.

Tylor was raised by his aunt and grandmother and as the youngest of four brothers, he was the "baby" of the family, bringing a unique spark and sense of humor to every family gathering. He cherished every opportunity to hang out with his older brothers, maintaining a bond that only siblings can share. His position as the youngest brother shaped much of his character, making him both resilient and deeply devoted to those he loved. His older brothers Beau, Preston, and Hayden, will remember him as not only their "baby brother" but as a source of laughter and shared memories.

To the world, Tylor was shy but to his nieces and nephew, he was simply "fun". He had a magical way of setting aside his shyness to enter their world, becoming a playful and devoted uncle who was always ready for a game or a laugh. His quiet nature made those burst of fun and shared joy all the more meaningful to the children who adored him.

Outside of his family life, Tylor was an avid gamer. He spent much of his free time in the digital worlds he loved, finding both challenge and connection through his favorite video games. For Tylor, gaming was more than a hobby; it was a way to bond with friends and express his competitive and creative spirit.

A vital part of Tylor's world was his dog Stella and best friend Chris. Over the years, their bond transcended friendship, and Chris and his family became a second family to Tylor. Whether gaming together or just spending time, their lifelong connection was a source of great joy and stability.

Tylor Hollifield was a gentle soul who found his greatest happiness in the simple things; a good game, a loyal dog, and a close-knit family. As we say goodbye to our youngest brother, we celebrate the shy, quiet man who was secretly the most fun person in the room. Rest easy, Tylor; your game is won, your heart is at peace, and your family will carry your memory forever.

“Gone way too soon . From the quiet type guy that took his time to open up to people around him, I knew him as the one who may have been a little more to him self and was content with the online friendship and games! He will be missed. I know more so that he is with his mom and so many others up there. Rest at ease and know that u are so good up there with no worries!!!
