

Violet Joanne Gent

April 27, 1929 - September 13, 2013

Violet Joanne Gent, 84, loving wife, step-mother, sister and grandmother, passed from this life on Friday, Sept. 13, 2013 in Dallas, Texas.

Violet was born in upstate New York on April 27, 1929. She had worked many years as a medical transcriptionist, still volunteering many hours after her retirement at Charleton Methodist Hospital in Dallas.

She loved arts and crafts, and especially liked sharing them with her friends from "Friendly Seniors of Lancaster".

Survivors include her husband of 9 years, Richard Gent; step-children, Ray Pleau and wife Kathy, Trenton Pleau and wife Barbara; brother, Marty Smith and 6 grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ I also met Vi through the Sonex gathering, and she also was my Facebook friend. She was so creative, and she talked about making some bags with the Sonex logo for the wives of the Sonex pilots. She seemed very excited to about that, and I was looking forward to her creation. Till we met again. ...

---

Connie Singleton - September 18, 2013 at 05:42 PM

“ I met Vi at the Great Southern Sonex Gathering (GSSG) in Bryan, Tx and we became friends. Then we talked almost everyday on Facebook. She was a great lady and I'm sure she is looking down on the rest of us with her great smile. You will be missed.

---

Nina Barber - September 18, 2013 at 03:56 PM

A grey square box containing the white initials 'JF' in a serif font.

“ Wonderful Aunt, great- aunt and great-great aunt. Aunt Vi taught me so much. She was more of a Mom to me. You will forever be in my heart. I will teach the children all that you have taught me. I love you Aunt Vi. It's an honor to be named after you.

---

Joanne Ford - September 18, 2013 at 09:42 AM