

Violet Mozelle Hutson

May 10, 1921 - October 4, 2007

Hutson, Violet M., a native of Haggerman, TX, and long-time resident of Irving died October 4, 2007 after a lengthy illness. Violet was a devoted mother and faithful servant of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Violet Mozelle Braswell Hutson was born May 10, 1921, the youngest of two children born to Horace and Ella Smithson Braswell. She attended school in Sherman, graduating from Sherman High School. Violet would later retire from The Houghton Mifflin Company, a publishing company in Dallas where she worked as an accountant for more than 35 years. Survived by sons; Billy Hutson and wife Debra, Eddie Hutson; daughter, Joanna Goforth and husband Bobby; 4 grandchildren; and 7 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Willie Haskell Hutson and a brother, Clasper Braswell. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Friday at the funeral home. Funeral: 11 a.m. Saturday, October 6, 2007 at the Heartland Church (formerly Christ Temple), 310 S. Story Rd., Irving, where she was one of the last charter members still living. Burial: Oak Grove Memorial Gardens, beside her husband Willie.

Previous Events

Visitation

OCT 5 (CT)

Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home
500 E. Main Street
Grand Prairie, TX 75050
(972) 263-5570