Waleed Maher Bijan, known to many as Will, of Grand Prairie, was called to Heaven on Saturday, June 30th. He was 33. One of four siblings, Will was born in Boston, MA. Feb. 24, 1979 and spent his childhood and teen years in Santa Cruz, CA, where he dreamed of one day taking his family to live. He met his wife seven years ago in Seattle, and from that moment on they were inseparable. Their love was comparable to none. They were soul mates, lovers, and best friends. In 2008, Will and his wife welcomed their first child, Jordan Roger, into the world. To say that that Will was an excellent father is an understatement. The love he had for his son was extraordinary, and their bond was unimaginable as Jordan and will were never apart. Will enjoyed spending time with his family and was a fan of music. He was an amazing artist. He loved playing the guitar and was teaching his niece, Amy how to play as well. He also enjoyed going to the lake, but above all he loved God . Will loved talking with his sister, Manal. Him and his sister were more than brother and sister, they were best friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, Munera & Maher, and his brother Waail.
