

William Albert Alexander

April 10, 1930 - July 2, 2023

Williams Albert Alexander, 93, an entrepreneur and skilled glass-blower, departed this life on July 2, 2023 at home with his children at his side.

Services: pending

William Alexander was born on April 10, 1930 Hempstead, New York, the son of the William Alexander, an immigrant from Holland, and the late Margaret Forster Alexander, an immigrant from Germany. He would spend time in the US Air Force before his discharge, serving during the time of the Korean Conflict.

William would work thirteen years for Texas Instruments as an extremely instrumental in advancing microchip technology. His real passion was for glass blowing, taking his creations to many sales across the area. He would eventually create his own oven, one of a kind to work with specialty quartz items.

He is survived by a son; Jay Alexander and daughter, Jill Alexander;

Tribute Wall

MR

“ Mr Bill was a very kind man, and each time i saw him, he would always show me his ring collection. Sending my deepest condolences

Monica Rose - July 27, 2023 at 03:34 PM