

Yolanda Chapa

October 14, 1948 - June 15, 2008

Yolanda Chapa died Sunday, June 15, 2008. Let the angels rejoice! Yolanda completed her journey on earth and went to be with her heavenly father. Always one of the last to leave any party, Yolanda took on the challenge of life for 60 years. With only a 6th grade education, she was able to raise 4 children and offer them the opportunity of a career and an education. After divorcing, Yolanda started a career of food services for the Arlington Independent School District and the Teas Rangers at the Ballpark in Arlington. She was a supportive mother and doting grandmother. She is survived by her children; Caesar Mercado and wife Silvia, Hector Chapa Jr. and wife Lupe, Sandy Millican and husband Brandon, Claudia Chapa and husband Adrian; grandchildren, Jaime Chapa, Abigail Mercado, Hunter Millican; father, Hilario Carbajal; siblings, Javier Carbajal, Diamantina Garcia, Tila Urquizo, Lupina Gonzales, Maria Moreno. Visitation: 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday. Funeral: 10 a.m. Thursday, June 19, 2008 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E. Main Street, Grand Prairie. Burial: Southland Memorial Park. While the party will continue, it will be noticeably less festive in your absence. Birth is a beginning, death a destination and life is a journey, a sacred pilgrimage to life everlasting.

Previous Events

Visitation

JUN 18 (CT)

Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home
500 E. Main Street
Grand Prairie, TX 75050
(972) 263-5570