“ Once when fishing with Bonnie a big snake fell from a tree out in the water. It was swimming straight for us. I am freaking out, but Bonnie calmly reached in her purse pulled out a gun and shot at the snake! It went under the watef and came up , she shot again. I said are we gonna move. My adorable lil sis said "hell no, this is a good spot and we were here first.

Don't know where that snake went but we caught a string og fish.

Love you and miss you.

“ So many, too many memories of Bonnie.. going to Mexico together in a brand new 1967 Mustang, driving in my old Chevy to see the love of her life, Billie Gene, (Bonnie actually held 3rd gear down with her foot because it kept popping up into neutral), shooting pool in the garage for hours on end with the guys... boys against the girls of course, until we beat them... ha!! playing game after game of 42, I was really lousy at that game but Bonnie was very good and made up for my lousy playing. And boy did she love it when we won.. haha We would drive all over Grand Prairie with little Ay Peek to buy lottery tickets 'cause she just knew that the store across town would be the lucky place to buy..

She left us way too soon. Memories are all that is left to remember her by, but they are good memories and that makes me smile. Love you Bonnie.
